Tucked away in this peaceful cul-de-sac positioned just off of Kingston Lane is this two-bedroom semi-detached home. The accommodation features an entrance porch, two reception rooms, a galley-style kitchen and two decent size bedrooms. In our opinion the property is presented in very good condition with the added benefit of the potential to be extended, subject to the required consent. The location is considered to be very good having easy access to local schools, amenities and road networks. Outside the rear garden is level and mainly laid to lawn with hedge borders and a useful large storage shed. Additionally, parking is provided by a lengthy private driveway. Exclusive to Spencer & Leigh.

Shirley Close is a popular location in east Shoreham having good access to local amenities such as the Holmbush Centre, with a large Tesco's, Marks & Spencer & NEXT store. Local road networks are easily accessible, as are bus services from the end of the road. Local schools catering for all ages including Shoreham Academy are within easy reach.
