A rare opportunity to rent this well presented family home which has been tastefully styled and thoughtfully extended. The highlight must surely be the spacious living space with bi-fold doors which overlook the landscaped rear garden and newly formed timber sun deck. There is an open plan fitted kitchen which benefits from integrated appliances and plenty of storage space. A separate utility room has space and plumbing for other appliances. Being versatile in nature, the property features two ground floor bedrooms and two first floor bedrooms, one of which as en-suite facilities. The family bathroom is also located on the first floor. Off road parking to the front is a useful addition. Benefits include a modern heating system and double glazed windows. Pleasant views over a neighbouring park can be enjoyed to the front and local shops including a convenience store are located only a stones throw away. Internal viewing is strongly recommended.
