This spacious and well presented flat is located on the second floor with it's very own private balcony which overlooks the communal gardens. Available from the end of July, the unfurnished accommodation features a decent size lounge with direct access to a private balcony. Unusually, both bedrooms are good size double rooms with bedroom room coming with built in wardrobe space. The modern fitted kitchen has the added benefit of a dishwasher, washing machine, fridge & freezer. The white bathroom suite has an over bath shower. Other points to mention are gas fired central heating, double glazed windows and a security door entry phone system. Pinewood is located in a well maintained private development within walking distance of Preston Park station. As an added benefit, occupiers of Pinewood have use of the Residents Parking. Viewing is recommended. COUNCIL TAX BAND: B

Pinewood is a sought after block set just off of the London Road near the popular Preston Park with its large recreational area and historical manor house. Facilities are in abundance with bus routes in and out of the city as well as easy access to the A23 for links to road networks to London. Preston Park railway station is also a short walk away along with a good range of local schools and shops.
