Occupying the entire ground floor of this attractive Mock Tudor building, this particular flat has the benefit of both the front and rear gardens. The neutral interior theme creates a bright and airy living space which features a pleasant lounge with a decorative fireplace and patio doors which have a Westerly aspect and provide access to the private rear garden. The well proportioned double bedroom has a bay window which overlooks the front garden. There is a fully equipped kitchen and a white bathroom suite which has a bath in addition to a shower. The flat is available with immediate possession and is offered on an unfurnished basis. Patcham Old Village and Preston Park with their many amenities and a mainline station are both relatively close by. Viewing is recommended. COUNCIL TAX - BAND B.
