Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

29 Lion D'Angers is a beautiful 4 bedroom detached house built in the early 90s and maintained to a high standard and situated in the popular village of Wiveliscombe.

The property is set in a quiet cul de sac with a driveway and additional chipped car parking space.

The accommodation comprises in brief: a step leading to the front door, once inside the entrance hallway an integral door can be seen on your left taking you into the garage which has plumbing for a washing machine, and plenty of storage, power connected and an up and over door.

Completing the ground floor is a sitting room with kitchen and dining room divided by an arch. The main living area is cosy with a working electric fireplace. The kitchen is sited to the rear of the property and has been designed to be the heart of this family home. It is fitted with a range of dove grey coloured wall and base units providing plenty of storage and a granite worktop, a double oven, induction hob and a further double gas hob. Adjoining the kitchen is a downstairs toilet and hand basin, there is also a door leading to the gated pathway that runs along the outside of the property.

To the first floor, there are four bedrooms one master with fitted wardrobes and a small en-suite with toilet and hand basin. A second double bedroom and two further bedrooms can be found along with a family bathroom with a three piece suite and electric shower overhead.

The main garden is at the rear of the property and can be accessed via the French doors in the dining room, leading to a decked area with steps down to a patio seating area. The garden consists of a range of established shrubs and trees sat in raised beds running along Astro turf lawn. At the bottom of the garden is a gated separate area housing sheds.

- Spacious 4 bedroom detached family home.
- Popular village location
