Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

15 Pyles Thorne Close is a well presented three double bedroom detached house sitting proudly on an exclusive, level corner plot in an established sought-after location on the South side of Wellington boasting driveway parking for numerous vehicles and a detached single garage.

The property comprises in brief; an entrance hall leading to the spacious sitting room with a large bay window, door to the rear garden and a beautiful log burner providing a focal point to the room. The dining room sits at the front and features wooden flooring. The kitchen has been renovated by the current homeowners and offers wall and base units for storage with contrasting wooden worktops and tiled splashbacks. There is a white one and a half sink, integrated double oven with a four ring induction hob and extractor above. A space is provided for the dishwasher and a useful utility/larder cupboard houses further white goods. Completing the ground floor is the W/C.

The first floor features three generous bedrooms with the master enjoying dual aspect and wardrobe storage. These rooms are served by the family bathroom with a vanity sink and shower over the bath.

Externally, the property is fully enclosed with timber fencing and is incredibly generous in size. Being predominately laid to lawn, the garden benefits from a vast entertaining space along with a variety of shrub borders. There is driveway marking for multiple vehicles and the detached garage also sits within the fenced garden allowing a high degree of privacy. The garage has been fitted with electricity making this ideal for electric vehicles.

A viewing comes highly recommended to see what this family home has to offer.
