Heathfield dates back to 1890 and was cleverly extended in 1994, now offering a substantial and attractive detached family home surrounding by its own land totalling approximately 1.8 acres along with stables, outbuildings and ample parking.

The versatile accommodation, which is arranged over two floors provides two reception rooms offering plenty of space for everyday furnishings. The extended and well-appointed kitchen/family room is clearly the social hub of the home, fitted with a comprehensive range of matching wall and base units with contrasting worktops and tiled splashbacks with ample space for all kitchen appliances. The extension, which is currently used as a family room, enhances the kitchen and offers plenty of space for dining furnishings with French doors overlooking the patio area. The adjoining utility room provides additional space for further kitchen appliances and houses the boiler. Completing the ground floor is a useful cloakroom.

To the first floor there are four generous bedrooms all of which enjoy countryside views with the master offering an en-suite whilst the remaining bedrooms are serviced by the family bathroom. Outside, the secluded property is approached via its own private driveway leading to a detached single garage, old piggery outbuilding along with useful ample parking currently laid to gravel. The level gardens surround the property on all sides and total approximately 1.8 acres and are predominately laid to lawns with an abundance of mature trees along with an extended patio area perfectly positioned to enjoy views over the garden.

Furthermore, the property boasts three loose boxes and a tack room overlooking its own paddock. Benefiting from uPVC double glazing and oil-fired central heating, the property offers an excellent comfortable family home which would be ideal for multi generation living in an enviable and tucked away positioned.

- No onward chain
- Secluded position
- Ample parking
- Stabling and outbuildings
- Spacious detached cottage
