Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

Whilst every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy of the floorplan contained here, measurements of doors, windows, rooms and any other items are approximate and no responsibility is taken for any error, omission or mis-statement. This plan is for illustrative purposes only and should be used as such by any prospective purchaser. The services, systems and appliances shown have not been tested and no guarantee as to their operability or efficiency can be given.

Conveniently situated on the popular south side of Wellington, backing onto open fields and enjoying a westerly rear garden, this three-bedroom detached house offers a modern interior along with an integral garage and driveway parking.

The upgraded accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hallway with useful cloakroom along with access into the sitting room which benefits from plenty of space for everyday soft furnishings. An archway leads into the dining room which offers French doors overlooking the rear garden whilst the adjoining kitchen provides a comprehensive range of matching cream wall and base units with contrasting worktops and upstands complemented by gloss splashbacks giving a crisp clean finish. There is ample space for kitchen appliances along with a wall mounted boiler and lovely views over the rear garden. Completing the ground floor is access into the integral garage which is connected to power and benefits from some shelving.

To the first floor there are three double bedrooms with the master providing a contemporary ensuite whilst the remaining bedrooms are served by the modern family bathroom offering a three-piece white suite complete with a standalone roll top bath.

Externally, the property sits towards the end of a cul de sac and is approached via a driveway which in turn leads to the integral garage and side gated access to the rear garden. The garden, which enjoys a high degree of privacy, is predominately laid to lawn with an extended area of patio, the main selling point being the views to the rear over open farmland. The property is neutrally decorated throughout allowing an incoming buyer to be able to move straight in and is positioned close to good road and rail networks.
