Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

4. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

23 Sanford Rise is a three bedroom semi-detached family home set in a pleasant plot position on the popular Jurston Fields development, built by reputable family builder C G Fry & Son in 2021 and benefiting from the remainder of its 10 year NHBC warranty and benefits from a garage and driveway.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises; front door opens into the entrance hallway with a cloakroom, stairs rising to the first floor and doors to the principal rooms. The sitting room has a window to the front elevation and a feature fireplace along with French doors to the rear garden. There is a large open plan kitchen/dining room offering two distinctive areas including a generous dining space whilst the kitchen itself is fitted with a comprehensive range of wall and base units and tiled splashbacks with a full range of integrated appliances. The adjoining utility room offers further space for appliances along with access to the rear garden.

To the first floor there are three bedrooms with the master benefiting from an en-suite shower room whilst the family bathroom is fitted with a three-piece white suite with a shower over the bath.

Outside, the property is approached via a step and to the side there is driveway parking in turn leading to the garage. The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn with a patio adjacent to the house with steps down to a lawn area all of which enjoys a good degree of privacy.
