LOCATION

Historic Barkway comprises an attractive mix of traditional period houses. The High Street has a pub, two garages, a primary school with nursery class and a playgroup. There is a village shop and sub post office in Barley 1.5 miles away. Cambridge city centre and the city's schools are easily accessed by car, train and bus, with school pick-ups at Barley and the Trumpington Park & Ride. The market towns of Royston, Buntingford and Saffron Walden provide a further range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities. There is a mainline railway station at Royston, with frequent trains to London King's Cross (34mins). Stations at Audley End, Bishop's Stortford and Ware offer services to London Liverpool Street. The A10 lies 2 miles to the West, and links to the City via the M11 and M25.
