LOCATION

Fulbourn Road in Cambridge offers an excellent balance of suburban living with close proximity to the city's vibrant amenities. Located on the southeast side of Cambridge, it provides easy access to a variety of local conveniences, including independent shops, cafes, and the popular Capital Park, which hosts a number of offices and businesses. Just a short distance away is the scenic village of Fulbourn, known for its charming pubs, village green, and nature reserve. Residents enjoy excellent connectivity, with Cambridge city centre approximately 3 miles away and regular bus routes serving the area. Cambridge Train Station, which offers direct links to London King's Cross and Liverpool Street in under an hour, is within easy reach. The upcoming Cambridge South Station will provide even greater access to the biomedical campus and the southern parts of the city. For families, the area is also well-served by schools, including the highly regarded Fulbourn Primary School and Coleridge Community College nearby. Major road links such as the A14 and M11 are easily accessible, making Fulbourn Road an ideal location for commuters.
