LOCATION

Trumpington is a vibrant and rapidly growing part of the city that retains its charming village atmosphere and strong sense of community. Its strategic location provides excellent access to the Addenbrooke's campus, the M11, and the city centre via various modes of transport including car, bus, guided bus, dedicated cycle routes, or leisurely walks. The city's mainline station is easily accessible via the guided busway cycleway, offering a car-free route. With three primary schools and a state-of-the-art secondary school established in 2016 boasting superb sporting facilities, educational opportunities abound. Additionally, numerous prestigious private schools are conveniently located within cycling distance. The area also offers a diverse range of amenities including restaurants, pubs, shops, a post office, barber, GP surgery, pharmacy, library, and community centre. Residents benefit from the presence of major supermarkets like Waitrose and Sainsbury's. Trumpington Meadows nature reserve connects Trumpington to Byron's Pool and Grantchester, while a second country park lies between Trumpington and the Addenbrooke's campus. Nearby bridleways and footpaths offer immediate access to the countryside, leading towards Harston, Haslingfield, Barton, and Grantchester.
