The delightful and generous mature rear gardens are a rather special feature of the property and are principally laid to lawn with a great variety of mature shrubs, bushes and well stocked borders around. There is a paved terrace immediately adjacent to the property itself and a garden storage shed to the side set behind the garage. There is also a shrub covered pergola and to the rear section of the garden there is a further secluded area with mature shrubs and trees around. Gated access in the rear corner of the garden leads to an extensive and long track which leads from Station Road and neighbouring properties also have an access over this to the rear sections of their own gardens and buildings. In all the gardens and track together extend to about 0.427 of an acre.
