LOCATION

Church Road in Little Wilbraham offers a charming village setting combined with excellent accessibility and a range of nearby amenities, making it a highly desirable location for those seeking a blend of rural tranquillity and convenience. Situated just six miles east of Cambridge, the village enjoys easy access to the city centre via the A1303 and A14, making it ideal for commuters. The nearby Cambridge North and Whittlesford Parkway railway stations provide direct links to London King's Cross and Liverpool Street, while the guided busway and park-and-ride services offer further convenient transport options. The area is well-served by local amenities in neighbouring villages, including a selection of pubs, shops, and services. The renowned Hole in the Wall gastro pub is a short stroll away, offering a popular spot for fine dining and socialising. For everyday essentials, the nearby village of Fulbourn offers a Co-op supermarket, pharmacy, and post office, while Great Wilbraham provides a local shop and primary school. Families benefit from access to highly regarded educational facilities, including Great Wilbraham CofE Primary School and the well-regarded Bottisham Village College, both of which are within easy reach. The area also offers a variety of recreational opportunities, with scenic walking and cycling routes through the surrounding countryside and nearby nature reserves, such as Wilbraham Fen. Despite its peaceful, rural charm, Church Road is well-connected, offering quick access to major road links such as the A11 and M11, making it an ideal location for those commuting to Cambridge, London, or beyond.
