LOCATION

Finchs Field enjoys a superb setting in the desirable village of Little Eversden, nestled amidst scenic countryside yet offering excellent access to Cambridge and key transport routes. The village itself is home to a doctors' surgery, village hall, and a network of picturesque walking and cycling routes. Nearby Great Eversden and neighbouring villages such as Comberton and Haslingfield offer further everyday amenities including a village shop, Post Office, pub, and well-regarded primary schools. The area also benefits from access to Comberton Village College, rated Outstanding by Ofsted, and an excellent choice of independent schools in Cambridge. For commuters, the A603 and M11 are easily accessible, and Cambridge city centre and mainline station are within a short
