LOCATION

The property enjoys a prominent and picturesque setting along the historic High Street in the heart of Sawston – one of South Cambridgeshire's largest and most vibrant villages. Steeped in history, the village has evolved into a thriving and well-connected community whilst retaining much of its traditional charm and character. The immediate surroundings offer a pleasant blend of period architecture and established greenery, enhancing the sense of place and providing a quintessential village feel. Sawston offers a truly comprehensive range of local amenities, most of which are within easy walking distance. These include a number of independent shops, a pharmacy, two convenience stores, a greengrocer, delicatessen, post office, highly regarded bakery, cafés, and a selection of popular pubs and restaurants. The village is also home to a medical centre, dentist, library, community hub, and a variety of recreational and sporting facilities, including football pitches, tennis courts, and fitness groups. There are regular farmers' markets and village events throughout the year, reinforcing the area's strong sense of community. Education is another major draw for the area. The village benefits from the well-regarded Sawston Village College, known for its strong academic reputation and excellent extracurricular offerings. In addition, the property is well-placed for access to some of Cambridge's most prestigious independent schools, including The Perse, St Faith's, and The Leys. Sixth form options such as Hills Road and Long Road colleges are also readily accessible. For the commuter, Sawston is ideally located. The nearby Whittlesford Parkway railway station (just over 2 miles away) provides fast and regular services into London Liverpool Street, Cambridge, and Stansted Airport. The A505 and A11 are within minutes, offering seamless road access to the M11, Cambridge Biomedical Campus (including Addenbrooke's Hospital), and the Cambridge Science and Business Parks. The guided busway at Trumpington is also nearby, offering further convenience for those working or studying in the city.
