LOCATION

Turnstile House is a handsome Georgian residence of considerable character, offering light-filled and generously proportioned accommodation typical of the period, complemented by a wealth of retained original features. Set within a mature and private plot, the property benefits from landscaped gardens, multiple outdoor seating areas, and an outdoor swimming pool, providing an excellent balance between elegant historic architecture and modern family living. Its position overlooking the village green and within walking distance of local amenities further enhances its appeal. The property is situated in the highly regarded village of Bassingbourn, which offers an excellent range of amenities including well-regarded primary and secondary schools, local shops, cafés, pubs, medical facilities, sports and recreational grounds, and a strong sense of community centred around the village green and hall. The village is surrounded by attractive countryside, ideal for walking and outdoor pursuits. Bassingbourn is well connected, with the nearby town of Royston providing fast and frequent rail services to Cambridge, London King's Cross–St Pancras, and beyond. Cambridge city centre is approximately 30 minutes by car, and there is convenient access to major road networks including the A1(M), M11, and A14, as well as regular bus services to Cambridge and Royston.

OUTSIDE

To the front, the property is approached from Bassingbourn High Street via a small tarmac drive, passing the village green and adjacent war memorial, and leading onto a gravelled driveway providing off-road parking for multiple vehicles. The frontage is attractively enclosed by mature hedging. A side entrance porch, featuring a panelled door and fitted benches to either side, provides access into the side entrance hall and kitchen.

To the rear lies an extensive and mature garden, predominantly laid to lawn. A paved terrace, positioned directly off the rear of the property, provides an ideal space for outdoor dining and entertaining. From here, a central paved pathway runs the length of the garden, bordered by well-stocked beds featuring a variety of mature shrubs and trees, including a striking centrally positioned birch. The garden is enclosed by a brick wall and benefits from a side access gate leading back to the driveway.

Towards the far end of the garden is an outdoor swimming pool, surrounded by paved areas and with steps leading into the shallow end. Beyond the pool is a pool house offering open storage and changing facilities, a pergola area with lighting, and a dedicated plant room. A separate building houses the pool filtration equipment and boiler, with an additional timber storage shed completing the outdoor amenities.
