LOCATION

Cavendish, one of the prettiest villages in Suffolk, is famous for its thatched cottages and picturesque green, set against a backdrop of the historic Saint Mary's Church. The village has two popular pubs, The Five Bells & The George Inn and enjoys a quintessential English village scene with a tea room and an antique shop. A wider range of facilities can be found at nearby Clare (2 miles), whilst the market town of Sudbury, some 6 miles distant, provides a wide range of amenities including a commuter rail service to London Liverpool Street.
