

North Street, Oundle
£415,000 Freehold

Sharman Quinney

Key Features

- NO ONWARD CHAIN
- Town centre location
- Three/Four bedrooms
- Original exposed floorboards
- Tastefully extended

On entering the property, you are firstly met by an attractive panelled entrance porch with a lovely high ceiling with room for coat storage, this in turn leads through to the open planned kitchen/living area, a bright and airy room with sash windows and an open fire. The kitchen area has been thoughtfully designed with an island combining the oven, hob and storage space, an original second entrance porch has now been redesigned and used as a storage area for the kitchen. Following on from this area is the extension which has previously been used as a dining room however it would also function as a large sunroom with its tiled floor and the original stone built exterior wall of the property as a backdrop which then looks out over the court yard garden. Walking up the first flight of stairs will give you access to two of the bedrooms which both have views out over the historic North Street, both of which benefit from sash windows, window seat, exposed floor beams and high ceilings. The family bathroom is a three-piece with a stand alone roll top bath. The second floor contains the master bedroom with en-suite and further room which has the option of being used as a dressing room or fourth bedroom.
