

Hannover House is a popular development situated east of Reading town centre and within walking distance of amenities such as Reading mainline station, Royal Berkshire Hospital, and The Oracle shopping centre. The development also benefits from lift access and an allocated parking space in an undercroft car park.

The apartment comprises an 18ft open-plan living area with integrated kitchen appliances, a three-piece bathroom, and two double bedrooms. This property is being sold with no onward chain complications and would make an ideal first-time purchase.
