

This well-presented semi-detached home is located on a sought-after development constructed by Redrow in 2015. The setting is conveniently situated for local amenities and schools with a number of parks close including Dinton Pastures Country Park. Woodley precinct offers a good range of shops and there is easy access to the A329(M) and M4 motorway with local bus routes nearby. Having been sympathetically upgraded by the present vendor the 3 bedroom home also features a well-equipped kitchen-dining room with granite work surfaces that overlooks the part-walled garden. The property is also offered for sale with no onward chain.
