

This well-presented apartment makes up part of a small modern development by Elegant Homes being sold with a share of the freehold. Situated in a sought-after tree lined address within the University area and close to the hospital, the ground floor property benefits from a contemporary open-plan design and is ideally positioned for the town centre. The mainline station and Oracle development with riverside restaurants and shops are easily accessible on foot with local bus routes on the road. The property is available with no onward chain complications and further benefits from a communal garden for shared use and an allocated parking space.
