

A rare opportunity to acquire a historic and characterful property in the highly sought-after village of Sonning, renowned for its idyllic riverside setting, picturesque Thames Path walks, and excellent dining options. Village highlights include the celebrated 16th-century Bull Inn, the popular riverside Coppa Club, and the highly regarded Blue Coat School, all contributing to Sonning's enduring appeal.

Rich in history, the property has evolved through several uses, from two individual cottages to a tea room, before being combined into one substantial dwelling. It now offers over 2,400 sq ft of flexible accommodation arranged across four floors, including cellar and loft space, providing both versatility and architectural interest.

The property is Grade II listed, recognising its architectural and historic importance. Any improvements must be undertaken with care and appropriate permissions, ensuring the character and integrity of the building are preserved. This status offers owners the unique opportunity to enjoy and protect a home of genuine historic significance.

Set within one of Berkshire's most charming villages, the property benefits from a strong community feel, excellent nearby transport links via Reading and Twyford, and convenient access to London and the wider Thames Valley. This is a rare chance to secure a substantial period home in a prime village location, combining history, character, and lifestyle appeal.
