White Gates is a modern, well presented single storey property located in the highly desirable village of Kingston, near Lewes. This light and airy property is positioned in a quiet, private road close to the South Downs.

An entrance hall with porch leads to a bright, dual aspect living room with parquet flooring and large sliding doors onto the patio. The modern open-plan kitchen/dining area is fully fitted with attractive cabinetry, large pantry, gas cooker and doors to the patio. It really is the heart of the home and provides a warm and sociable space to cook and entertain. A separate utility area lies beyond. You will find bedroom 4 here (which also makes a great study) and a shower room.

The spacious, dual aspect, main bedroom with built-in cupboards has views over the garden to the side. Two further good-sized double bedrooms are adjacent.

There is a tiled family bathroom with bath and overhead shower, a second shower room and a separate cloakroom.

To the front, the property has a pretty hedge surround. The garden, mainly paved or laid with pebbles, lies to the front and side of the property .

There is on road parking for several cars to the front of the property as well as off-road parking.
