A great example of a Grade II listed Georgian townhouse located in the heart of the county town of Lewes - the property is situated on the High Street, an amazing place to watch the world go by as especially the annual fireworks parades. the property has undergone some recent refurbishment including the replacement of the kitchen, décor throughout and some new flooring..

The well proportioned and light accommodation covers 5 floor and is very flexible in its use. Currently you come in on the ground floor and find a hallway and the kitchen / dining room - double aspect with views to the rear. If you go down you will find a garden room or possible ideal office with a door to the rear south facing courtyard garden. You can also access the cellar from here and it is perfect to convert into more living space.

On the first floor you will find the sitting room and a spare double bedroom - with amazing elevated views towards the coast.

The next floor has a large double bedroom and a large bathroom with bath and shower cubicle - also with great views! The top floor is a further bedroom, ideal for children or guests or indeed work from home space. The rear courtyard is brick paved and a great place to catch the sun and have a cocktail.

Internal viewings highly recommended - please call the office to arrange.
