This architecturally exciting and beautifully presented Edwardian family home features beautiful, modern, spacious, and well presented accommodation throughout.

You enter the property into an impressive modern entrance hall with vaulted ceiling, exposed timbers and a large picture window framing the countryside views. A bespoke designer staircase with glass balustrade then leads to the ground floor reception room that offers both dining and study areas and features underfloor heating. Glazed bi-fold doors lead to the garden and large glass doors lead from the dining area through to the dual aspect kitchen/breakfast room.

The modern fitted kitchen features marble worktops and integral Neff appliances including oven, fridge/freezer & dishwasher. Doors from the kitchen lead to a west facing sandstone paved courtyard garden offering space for al-fresco dining and entertaining.

Continuing through from the kitchen you proceed to the original Edwardian internal hallway with it's period checkerboard tiled floor. The drawing room has a feature fireplace and square bay window that overlooks the rear garden. Bi-fold doors separate the living room and a further reception room providing a flexible entertaining space. When opened up this offers an expansive dual aspect room with bay windows overlooking the front and rear gardens. The living room also features a wood burning stove.

The rear garden is landscaped with a circular lawn enclosed by laurel hedge and fence borders as well as two patio areas. The ground floor also offers a cloakroom, spacious laundry and storage room.

Upstairs on the first floor, bedroom one features a square bay window and double doors that open onto a balcony making the most of the stunning views over the countryside towards the Ashdown Forest. Double doors join bedroom one to bedroom three (which has been previously used as a dressing room and offers expansive fitted wardrobes). Bedroom two has a bay window overlooking the front courtyard and an en-suite shower room with a Duravit suite. Bedroom four has windows to the front, fitted cupboards and access to the first floor reception hall. There is a luxury family bathroom with modern Duravit suite featuring a separate walk in shower enclosure with rainfall shower head, designer bath, underfloor heating and heated towel rail.
