

Hendrix, 65 Wragby Road Sudbrooke, Lincoln, LN2 2QX

£1,500,000

Very rarely does a house of this calibre and understated elegance come onto the open market. This is a truly unique executive home that manages to combine comfortable family living with stunning design. Hendrix commands attention and rightly so - with extensive and well planned internal living accommodation spread over three floors, totalling over 4800sqft, the property includes a detached two bedroom annex, a large indoor heated swimming pool complex and a separate home office/gym all set back in grounds of 1.1Acres(STS). There are powder coated aluminium windows throughout, solar panels, photovoltaic panels and air source heat pumps installed at this property. Heavy Solid wooden front doors open into the impressive reception hallway where the eye is immediately drawn upwards following the lines and shapes created by the bespoke staircase and then from the hallway double doors lead to the dual aspect lounge with log burner and further doors to the snooker /dining room, laundry room, WC, study and kitchen where you will find a pantry and walk-in fridge and bifold doors which take you back through to the sitting room. Following the gentle curves of the staircase will take you to the first and second floors, the galleried landings to each level offering impressive and versatile spaces that can be utilised as reading areas or snugs where best to further enjoy the bright and beautiful outlook. An exterior wraparound balcony compliments the first floor with French doors leading from the landing and the two rear bedrooms. There is a luxury family bathroom and four double bedrooms - each with their own dressing room and access to two Jack and Jill en-suite shower rooms. The stairs then lead up to the second floor landing with a small door to the first large attic which runs the length of the house and then double doors through to the master suite. The master bedroom has its own sizeable balcony, an array of built-in wardrobes and cupboards, one of which hides the entry into the second attic space. Through to the dressing area, en-suite and further sitting area with an impressive view and currently used as a study/ studio. The detached annex bungalow offers a perfect self-contained space for a multiple of uses and consists of modern, well presented and designed living accommodation to include entrance hall, open plan living dining kitchen, WC, utility room, two double bedrooms and a Jack and Jill shower room. The pool house has a large heated swimming pool, Sauna, two showers, WC, changing rooms, plant room and to one side, a separate office/gym. Externally the property is tucked away behind bespoke electric gates, a circular driveway, parking for multiple vehicles and well established landscaped wraparound grounds extending the 1.1 acres(STS) and include woodland, formal lawns, ponds, water features, extensive raised decked seating areas and a gravelled Boules area. This well-known property is like no other and the design and attention to detail given in its renovation make it exceptional. HENDRIX is certainly a name to remember and a presence to match. (A sprinkler/misting system is installed in line with new building regulations).
