LOCATION - An exclusive Lindum Homes development of five properties within this popular village, a totally unique development that's personal. Each and every Lindum Homes development is unique, with meticulous care and attention given to creating places where people desire to live. Bramley Grove is no exception, it's made even more special as it is 'personal' to Lindum Homes. The charming village of Heighington is situated 4 miles south-east of the majestic Cathedral City of Lincoln. With its mix of old and new properties, pubs, shops, primary school and a variety of other amenities this thriving community proves popular with people searching for a pleasant village to live.

SERVICE CHARGE - There is a Management Fee payable of £1,000 per annum to the Bramley Grove Management Company Ltd. This provides for the maintenance of the private open space, including landscaping, trees and general gardening to these areas. It also covers the developments future maintenance to private drive, private sewer, drains and pump station. A proportion of this fee will also cover the cost of an annual public liability insurance and electricity cost for development entry bollard lighting. Your Solicitor will have copies of the Legal Plan and this will show the areas of Private Open Space requiring maintenance. Please note the cost of the Management Company Fee is reviewed annually and may be increased where necessary to cover any increase in insurance premium renewals and or garden maintenance costs. All monies held in account and any revised annual fees will be agreed at the end of the development when the Management Company is passed to the residents. Any queries regarding the Management Company should be raised with your Solicitor as part of your conveyance.
