5 The Meadows, Cherry Burton, HU17 7RL

DESCRIPTION

The Meadows is an established area of individual detached houses and bungalows and this property occupies an elevated position close to the entrance to the development from the village Main Street. It is therefore close to local amenities and enjoys outlooks to the front across rooftops to fields surrounding the village. The well arranged accommodation enjoys a private rear garden aspect, to include french doors leading out, from each of the lounge, dining kitchen and main bedroom onto a full width paved terrace. The property has very recently been comprehensively re-modelled, renovated and refitted throughout and is in good as new condition with neutral decorations and floorcoverings. This bright and airy bungalow is recommended for those seeking a village home within easy reach of a wide range of facilities.

SITUATION

Cherry Burton is approximately 3 miles outside the bustling market town of Beverley with good access onto the A1079 Hull to York road, and to Malton and Driffield to the north. The property is a short walk from the pond in the middle of the village, near which are a local shop & post office, pub with restaurant and the village primary school.
