DESCRIPTION

This is a spacious 463 sq ft master bedroom house in need of updating, an end of terrace of only three properties, with cottage front garden, in a convenient location for well serviced historic town centre including major supermarket, doctors, dentist and sought after schooling, with NO 'upward CHAIN'.

It also benefits from UPVC double glazing including external door, electric night storage heaters on cheap Economy 7 tariff, electric smart meter, wooden vertical panelled internal doors, is only a council tax band 'A' currently £1477.81 gross per annum, and is offered freehold.

The property consists of lounge (with feature previously open fireplace having wood burner and log effect electric fire, and built in base shelving), fitted kitchen (including range of base and wall unit, slot in electric cooker having double oven and four ring ceramic hob, space/plumbing for fridge freezer and washing machine), upstairs fully tiled bathroom (with shower riser and rail over the bath and built in full height cupboard), and very spacious 135 sq ft master bedroom.

Outside is the cottage front garden and a small brick outbuilding (needs re-roofing).

The well serviced historic market town of Spilsby, birthplace of Sir John Franklin the arctic explorer, has a major supermarket, restaurants, tearoom, open air market, doctors, dentist and sought after schooling. Spilsby, a gateway to the Lincolnshire Wolds, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, is also only 12.5 miles from fantastic beaches on the east coast and 17 miles from several tourist attractions including the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight, Cadwell Race Circuit etc.
