DESCRIPTION

This is a two bedroom detached property with macadam style tandem off road parking for two cars and south west facing and enclosed garden including raised beds, paved patio and double fronted metal shed, remainder of outside picket fence enclosed wrap around path/garden, all on a select site for retired and semi-retired couples or singles over 50 years of age, pets allowed including dogs (subject to the site owners discretion), literally in the centre of the well serviced historic large village of Tattershall, walking distance to shops including Co-Op supermarket, post office service, public house, fish and chips shop, sweet shop, hairdresser and local bus stop, and there is NO 'upward CHAIN'.

It also benefits from UPVC double glazing including external doors, PVC fascias, gas central heating with 5 year old Worcester boiler that is serviced annually, recently repainted externally, outside light and water supplies and the council tax band is only an 'A'.

The property consists of an enclosed entrance porch (with window, light, power and radiator), hall, triple aspect lounge (including bow window), dual aspect fitted kitchen (including oak fronted wall and base cabinets, Bush stainless steel and smoke glass fronted electric fan assisted oven, Belling stainless steel 4 ring gas hob, fridge space), shower room (with double width shower, also having pedestal hand basin, low level close coupled toilet, heated towel rail), master bedroom and the second bedroom (currently having multi-function use as craft room and having plumbing).

The property is an Homeseeker 40 ft x 10ft park home, site fees are £201 per month, mains electricity and water/drainage are charged via the site, and propane gas cylinders are connected. All utilities are billed and paid individually.

The well serviced historic large village of Tattershall facilities also include a National Trust castle, country park and water sports centre.
