Tucked away in a quiet side road, accessible via a private driveway, this spacious four-bedroom, two-bathroom detached house offers a mix of modern comfort and potential for expansion. Situated within walking distance of Hatch End Broadway, with its range of eateries, shops, supermarkets, and overground station, this property is ideal for both entertaining and family living.

Located within one mile of two OFSTED "Outstanding" rated state schools and close to several respected private schools, the property also offers proximity to places of worship and easy access to Central London via excellent public transport links.

Entering through a generously sized porch into a hallway, you will find a separate living room flooded with natural light from large windows, providing direct access to the garden. There's also a study and a separate dining area, perfect for family meals or entertaining.

The modern kitchen/family room is a highlight, featuring sleek countertops, stainless steel appliances, and ample cabinet space for storage. A centre island adds extra workspace and doubles as a casual dining spot.

The principal bedroom suite boasts its own ensuite bathroom, with the remaining bedrooms sharing a well-appointed additional bathroom.

The sizable back garden presents opportunities for gardening, recreation, and benefits from spacious patio areas for outdoor entertaining. With the potential to extend, there's room to customise and expand the home to suit your evolving needs and preferences, there are plenty of options available; extend, convert the garage, or convert the loft.
