Spen Lea, 317 Wharf Road, Ealand, DN17 4JW

A rare and exceptional opportunity to acquire this stunning four-bedroom detached Victorian residence, beautifully situated in the picturesque village of Ealand. Blending timeless elegance with modern luxury, this charming property is rich in original period features while offering contemporary living at its finest. Set on a generous plot, the home boasts attractively landscaped gardens, private driveway parking for multiple vehicles, and two brick outbuildings providing excellent storage and a sense of privacy. Step through the original entrance door with coloured glass into an impressive hall way, where high ceilings, intricate cornicing, and original fireplaces immediately capture the essence of Victorian architecture. The ground floor features a welcoming sitting room with a feature fireplace, an elegant dining/living room, and a well-appointed kitchen with modern fittings. An inner lobby leads to a practical utility room, a study or storage space, a WC, and an additional storage room. A split-level staircase leads to a stylish bathroom and a second landing that gives access to three spacious bedrooms, including a primary with ensuite. A few steps up, you will find bedroom four - ideal as a guest suite, creative studio, or additional living space. This home is full of character, with notable features including working fireplaces and even a personal hatch to what was once the servants' quarters - a charming nod to its history. Outside, the property enjoys vast lawned gardens, a raised garden area, and a central gate flanked by a low brick wall at the front. The outbuildings look onto the rear garden, enhancing the sense of seclusion and privacy. Viewing is essential to the warmth, charm, and unique lifestyle this exceptional home has to offer.
