Client Comments

"We have particularly enjoyed... the location of the house overlooking open country with occasional visits from deer and heron; the quality of the build leading to ease of running the house; excellent levels of insulation ensuring lower heating bills; pleasant next door neighbours; dining in the conservatory overlooking the rear garden; sitting in the summer house watching the birds feed; the private parking area to the side of the house which is wider than the norm and the ease of travel whether to the East or West."
