Under Offer (SSTC)

£785,000 (Freehold)

This beautifully presented 1930s semi has been extended and upgraded throughout to create a stylish, versatile family home – all within easy reach of Enfield Town’s bustling centre and excellent transport links.

This beautifully presented four-bedroom semi-detached home blends classic 1930s charm with modern upgrades, offering generous space, versatile living areas, and stylish finishes throughout. Set on a peaceful residential street just 0.6 miles from Enfield Town Station, the property is perfect for growing families or professionals seeking flexible space and fantastic transport links, and it's offered chain free.

Inside, the home has been thoughtfully extended and updated. The front reception features a bay window and fitted storage, with a separate office providing the perfect work-from-home setup. To the rear, a large open-plan kitchen/diner is fitted with sleek units, high-spec integrated appliances – including a Neff oven, wine cooler, and hot water tap, plus a sociable breakfast bar and a brick feature wall. There’s also a ground floor WC, dedicated utility room, and access to both the front and rear gardens.

The first floor hosts three well-proportioned bedrooms, a modern family bathroom, and a separate WC, while the top floor is home to a spacious loft room with fitted wardrobes, Juliet balcony, and a stylish en-suite complete with walk-in shower and underfloor heating.

The garden is a mix of lawn, decking and patio, perfect for relaxing or entertaining, and the paved front driveway offers off-street parking.

The location is a real highlight: Enfield Town offers a wide choice of cafés, shops, and restaurants, with the Palace Gardens Shopping Centre nearby for everyday essentials. You’re within easy reach of local parks such as Bush Hill Park and Enfield Playing Fields, and well-regarded schools like Enfield Grammar and St. George’s RC are close by. With fast rail connections to Liverpool Street, excellent bus routes, and road links to the A10 and M25, this home balances suburban comfort with easy access to the City.
