"Greenmore Road has been so great for us for the past three years. It has given us the perfect place to start our family, in a lovely community oriented area. With lots of green spaces on our doorstep (amazing community programme of events at Redcatch park and brilliant woods in Arnos vale just a few hundred metres away) it has really allowed us headspace despite being so connected to the city centre. Being able to nip down to the station so quickly is very handy and with great neighbours all around, this little pocket of Bristol has been perfect for us."
