"We have loved living at Bryants Hill for the last 5 years. We make great use of the local nature reserve, local parks, and Troopers Hill when walking our dog Bear. We also love the fact it's got such easy access into the centre of Bristol with a short bus journey from right outside our home. We are so sad to be leaving our home and our lovely neighbours, but we feel we have given the house a whole lot of love and have restored lots of its Victorian character."
