"Narrowways was our first home following our move from the United States. We couldn't have landed in a better spot, surrounded by green space (Stoke Park, City Farm, Boiling Wells Woodland...), an incredibly kind and caring community, good schools, and Namak Indian on Mina Road nearby, the best! We truly felt welcomed from the day we moved in. Local craftspeople and builders have helped us shape our home, from upcycled wooden floors via the old Chocolate Factory, to solid walnut shelves fashioned from a table we brought over from the States. As we're in a cul-de-sac at the top of the street, it's super quiet, there's always parking, and we often leave the front door open for a neighbourly chat. A work opportunity means it's now time to leave Bristol, we'll miss the street and the community very much indeed."
