"This was our first home together, we took on a project and loved making it into our perfect home together. We even got engaged and had our wedding reception in the house (thanks to Covid!). We have absolutely loved living in Easton and will miss it greatly. We love having brunch spots such as No12 and Garden of Easton on our doorstep, as well as The Greenbank for a drink in the evening. The Sweetmart has saved me numerous times when I've been in need of obscure spices and ingredients!"
