"We've absolutely loved our time here on Leighton Road, Southville. We moved in, excited to turn the house into a home and the huge community feel on the street immediately helped with that- neighbours offering up tools and help and even carrying in our sofa! I have always loved this area of Bristol and after living here, I always will- there's always something to do, be it a picnic in the park, 5 minute drive to Leigh Woods for a long Sunday walk, lots of lovely pubs and some amazing restaurants and bars along North Street. Close enough in to the city that everything is easily accessible but far enough away that you get a real sense of community and peacefulness."
