"I've loved living in my Paintworks house, it's given me an amazing space to have my friends round for dinners and BBQs. The atmosphere here has always been very relaxed, and it's so nice to have an off-road street outside the front door. I always wanted a warm, modern house, and all the little areas of storage have been so practical, especially with all my sports equipment. For me, its location has been perfect, It's super easy for me to get into work in town and big Sainsbury's is only 5 minutes walk away. It feels like I'm getting the benefits of living in central Bristol, without actually living there."
