"The heart of our home is the kitchen, it's big and light and has so many places to sit, chat, eat and look at the garden. In winter time, we are lucky to have two open fires to choose from, so the house is always super cozy. There are so many gorgeous original features in this house, they make a lovely juxtaposition to all the art and modern furniture we've introduced. The garden is such a stretched out gem, sitting underneath the Ash tree on a summers day, all you can hear is birdsong."
