"When we finally found our lovely St George home, we couldn't believe our luck. It had everything we'd been searching for and more – a cozy cottage feel, right in the heart of one of the city's friendliest communities. It has its own secluded garden oasis, which even comes with a built-in pizza oven, and you can enjoy a peaceful morning coffee. This was a beloved family home, which we eco-renovated and decorated over the happy years we spent there. We will dearly miss this very special place – and just know the next lucky owner will fall in love with it exactly as we did!"
