"Garnet Street has been a wonderful place to live over the past 8 years and we will be so sad to leave. The street is quiet and the privacy our garden offers is something we will really miss. With the bustle of North Street just moments away we have loved making the most of grabbing a coffee on a Sunday morning or going for impromptu dinners. It's been a wonderful place to raise our young family with nearby parks, highly rated nurseries and schools in walking distance and loads to do for young families. We have especially loved sitting in the sun in South Street Park as it sets on summer evenings, watching the balloons float over the suspension bridge from the end of our road or wandering down to the harbour for fish and chips from Wapping Wharf."
