"There are very few of this period in Easton, with this amount of outdoor space and even now we still can't believe we live in such a gorgeous home. It's been lovingly restored over years to a really high standard, we've given some rooms a modern touch of colour and tried to create a very homely feel throughout, without losing the light and bright feel. We've loved spending hours cultivating the garden spaces with an array of plants and trees too and spent many a happy summer relaxing there."
