"We've poured so much care and attention into renovating our home to a high standard, with a real focus on quality and character. Many original features have been restored, including fireplaces, cast iron radiators, and beautiful reclaimed doors, which give the house a warm and timeless feel. The location has been perfect — right in the heart of the city, yet with a real village-like atmosphere. We've loved having green spaces like the city farm and local parks just a short walk away. It's been a fantastic home for entertaining friends and a lovely, practical space for family life."
