"What we love about living here is the way the sunlight in the afternoon streams in through the front windows, giving everything a calm and golden feeling. Saturday mornings are one of our favourite times - just sitting with a quiet coffee, listening to Bristol wake up around us, but feeling like we're tucked away in our own world. The courtyard garden has a gentle, organic charm - wild strawberries and herbs have helped themselves, with the jasmine and other climbers adding bursts of colour and fragrance. And in the summer months, we watch hot air balloons drift lazily overhead. We have enjoyed bringing colour and love into our cosy home!"
