"There is such a strong welcoming community here, which has been so nice having lived out of the city for several years. Perrett's Park at the end of the road is a real highlight and has some of the best views of the city. It's a lovely quiet street, but it also has some great bars/pubs on Wells Road with the city centre and Bristol Temple Meads being very easily accessible. This was our first home together, so it will always be a special place for us, and I'm sure the next owners will love living here as much as we have."
