" This house has been so much more than just bricks and mortar - it's been our haven and home filled with love, laughter and happy memories. It has been wonderful to watch my daughter grow up here from a toddler to a teenager; we have loved spending countless hours playing in Redcatch Park, and picnicking in Perrett's Park while watching hot air balloons float over the city skyline. There is a real sense of community here with neighbours who always look out for each other, many of whom have become lifelong friends. It has been a truly special place to call home. "
