"I loved living on Mendip road for many reasons! It's so close to Victoria park which I spent a lot of time in hanging out in the summer (and ending up in the lovely sunny pub garden of the Victoria Park pub). Being able to go for a run out of my door and round the harbour-side to see the water and boats was a real pleasure. It's so close to some very nice cafes (eg the Bristol Loaf) and pubs on North street which was very handy for socialising."
